NARRATIVE:

Kemp, an active member of the Crips street gang, has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 20 and includes kidnapping, robbery, first degree burglary, escape, disturbing the peace, under the influence of controlled substance, theft of personal property, multiple petty thefts with prior prison, possession of controlled substance, and violation of supervised release. Kemp has served six prison terms, the longest being 20 years for first degree burglary. He was released most recently, to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on 05/11/2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in January 2014 after Kemp absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Kemp qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for petty theft with prior is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His prior criminal history, status as an active gang member, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
